

Cahill Anspaugh

Cahill especially loves science and learning about things like what the earth was like millions of years ago and how to build muscles. After high school, he's looking forward to working with trains.

Ben Bartlett

While at LGS Ben enjoyed learning about his favorite events in history and the importance of social skills. He looks forward to high school, especially cooking classes to help him achieve his goal of becoming a chef.

Cameron Carr

Cameron would love to make music or be an entertainer in the future. He's excited to start high school where he can record his own CD, and perhaps join a choir or learn an instrument.

Graham Kelsch

His first time in the Middle School Building is Graham's favorite memory of LGS—it has so much space! He's learned a great deal at LGS, including the value of homework to feel prepared.

Zander Naegele

Zander will miss LGS teachers, friends, and the class pet—a bearded dragon. He also says LGS helped him develop good study habits and strategies for high school. He hopes one day to join the Air Force.

Alanya Ozdil

Alanya will miss school trips to The Children's Theatre and cool science experiments, but especially LGS therapy dogs. After high school, she looks forward to working and living in an apartment with her own dog.

Jonah Pasqueletti

Jonah says LGS has prepared him for high school academic classes and social situations so he can feel more confident and be successful. Math is his favorite subject; he hopes it will help him in a future career.

Congratulations, Class of 2021!

Natalie Relthford

While at LGS Natalie enjoyed cooking classes and dancing with her friends. As a Final Friday of the month reward, she also enjoyed having her make-up and nails done in a teacher-hosted salon for students.

Cole Senior

The thing Cole loved most about LGS was playing chase around the outside of the school building with friends. He's enjoyed new experiences while at LGS, most recently working with kinetic sand.

Ava Siekman

Ava looks forward to making new friends in high school and being a good role model. She will miss her LGS friends, therapy dogs and especially her teachers, who helped make going to school fun.

Maddie Szawaluk

Maddie will miss her LGS teachers and everyone who helped her through tough times. Her favorite class was science because she could feed frogs and class pets; she hopes to work with animals in the future.

Ethan Theisens

Ethan enjoys social studies because he can learn about the world! He's looking forward to high school and passing a lot of computer tests. In the future he would like his own apartment and a job at Game Stop.

Gabe Thomas

Gabe says LGS has prepared him for high school by making him do more independent work. His favorite memory is spending the day at the Siekman Farm. In the future, he would like to work with animals.

Congratulations, Class of 2021!
