

Autism Conversation

Girls on the Autism Spectrum

Presented by: Jenny Burton, M.E.d., CCC-SLP
Speech-Language Pathologist

The Kelly O'Leary Center for Autism Spectrum Disorders
Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center

When: Thursday, January 14 from 6-8pm

Where: Hyde Park public library; 2747 Erie Avenue, Cinti, OH 45208

Please RSVP to Carole at cwillenborg@autismcincy.org

This conversation will focus on the special strengths of girls with ASD as well as possible challenges girls with ASD and their families may face. Resources for girls on the spectrum, as well as social communication skills, will be shared.

Jenny's clinical expertise has focused on providing diagnostic and speech-language therapy services for children with ASD. She has provided services for children with ASD for more than ten years and has a special interest in working with girls with ASD. She is a doctoral student in Communication Sciences and Disorders at the University of Cincinnati and PI on grant at CCHMC to explore the social communication profile of girls with ASD.

Autism Conversations are meant to increase knowledge and stimulate dialogue on topics of interest. All speakers will discuss the identified topic from 6:00-7:30pm, and from 7:30-8:00pm, parents and professionals will be encouraged to network and all speakers will be available to answer questions.

If you have any questions about the Autism Conversations, please contact Amie Duncan at Amie.Duncan@cchmc.org
